

1ST INTERNATIONAL VIRTUAL HERITAGE SCHOOL

virtual museums, communication and digitisation in emergency situations

Are you interested in learning how to rapidly develop and process digital heritage and successfully communicate Cultural Heritage through interactive technologies?

The 1st international Virtual Heritage School, organised by leading European institutions in the field of Virtual Heritage and Virtual Museums (V-MUST.NET), coordinated by CNR (ITABC/ISTI/ITD) and by the main worldwide organisation on conservation and restoration (ICCRUM), will address these topics and involve participants in interactive laboratories on Virtual Museums and Virtual Heritage.

If you have a strong interest in the topic, if you are working or studying in the field of cultural heritage and museums, V-MUST.NET and ICCROM, in cooperation with BMTA, welcome you at the

1st INTERNATIONAL VIRTUAL HERITAGE SCHOOL virtual museums, communication and digitisation

from the 12th to the 17th of NOVEMBER 2012
in Paestum (Salerno) Italy

20 participants will be selected through a competitive call. Full board accommodation will be provided, while grants will be also provided to best candidates.

In order to apply, you should fill in the application form available on line, and send CV and motivation letter to info@v-must.net

Scientific Committee of the School
Sorin Hermon, Mattias Wallergard, Victor Menchero Lopez, Sofia Pescarin, Holger Graf, Hugh Denard, Stefano De Caro

<http://www.v-must.net/schools/international-virtual-heritage-school-2012>
<http://www.archeovirtual.it>